The Waltz Lesson.

Words by MATT. WOODWARD.

Music by C. M. ZIEHRER.

Andantino (Non troppo lento) NELLA.

NELLA.

GUIDO.

Just the way the words appear, but the music has no title. And there are no words to sing! Well, a waltz is just a waltz miss.
feel it As all loving couples do! I de-steal it. If I can teach this waltz to you; Not to sing, but how to song's another thing. Mine the credit, none shall

M. A. clare! It ought to have some verses 'Tis a waltz, The movement makes the Guido.

Waltz Lesson. 11
rhyme. And the one who such a waltz re-

NELLA.

hears-es Needs but to know it's in three-four time. Ah, yes, in three-four time, Music comes o'er us, As from a-bove; So sing me the chor-us, Words all so-nor-ous, Breathing of love. Soft as the coo of the

Tempo di Valse.

Waltz Lesson. 11
The waltz lesson.

Tur-ple dove! Words to this waltz no; 'Tis strictly for bid-den,

Find in the mu-sic the mean-ing that's hid-den; Right in the notes the Sen-ti-ment lies; So, for the words let us im-pro-vise. When Heav'n first gave the rhythmic waltz It taught men to hum and then to dance—— And

As that instinct was not false, So let our movements thus advance.

Oh! delightful art!

Like a sweet-ing ocean La la la la la la

How it stirs my heart In drea my dancing Rolling and

Then in drea my dancing Rolling and

The Waltz Lesson, 11
sway-ing Tra la la la, lee, With such a movement en-tranc-e.

That's the waltz for me!

Teacher you forgot your duty, Tho' to learn I was a lert,

You ign-or'd the waltz's beauty

The Waltz Lesson, 11
When with me you tried to flirt!

In a waltz is such a thing for-course it may be deftly hidden If you but do it in three-four time! Yes flirt in

Tempo di Valse.

three-four time, You will say this is May be too bold, But lend me some kiss-es
I Those fleeting bliss-es I fain would hold— I will re-pay you a hun-dred fold!

Kiss-in a waltz? No, 'tis strict-ly for-bid-den Right in the mu-sic the kiss-es are hid-den In ev-ry note are kiss-es ga-lore

But there's no "bus'-ness" mark'd in the score! When Heav'n first gaveth rhythmic
The Waltz Lesson. 11

The Waltz Lesson. 11
Rolling and swaying, Tra la la lee! With such a movement entrancing That's the waltz for me!

Dance.