Moontime in Junetime

HENRY LODGE
Composer of "TEPTATION SONG"

There are certain times for
In a cozy corner

loving, There are times to bill and coo, It is cooing, When the lights are turned down low, Is the Copyright MCMX by JEROME H. REMICK & Co., New York & Detroit.

Copyright, Canada, MCMX by Jerome H. Remick & Co.
Lovers are not fussy, time for turtle-dov-ing When the moon nods How-dy-do Now some favored place of woo-ing For some lovers that I know. But the Lovers are not fussy, They can spoon at night or noon; But the time and place for love words, That for me can't come to soon, Is the Time for me is moon-time, In the rosy month of June.

loving time of night birds 'Neath the old romantic moon.
REFRAIN

Moon-time in June-time
Is the time for tales of love,

Juno-time in moon-time
While the night birds coo above,

Just a-roaming long hand in hand,
Look in eyes, say hearts understand,

Moon-time in June-time
Is spoon-time for love.