"SIMPLE DOTTIE DIMPLE"

Words by
WILL J. HARRIS.

Music by
HARRY I. ROBINSON.

Writers of "YONKLE," "MONTANA," "GAMES OF CHILDHOOD DAYS" etc.

Tempo di Valse

VOICE

I've known you a long time Dot-ty Re-mem-ber the time I met you Twas known me a long time too We've quarrelled a bit, but while we were at re-cess I saw you that day, while

Copyright, 1910, by WILL ROSSITER. Chicago, Ill.
And you were the earths - I'm quite a - while Hard les - soris and such, don't then you and I have been sweet-hearts Now Dot - ty that's used to that name As long as you wear, that been' quite a - while Hard les - sons and such, don't dim - ple so fair, Dot - ty Dim - ple you'll al - ways re - main, both - er me much, When I look round and see your sweet smile.

CHORUS

For that simple dimple— I'd break the golden rule— I may be talking like a kid But what I've said I meant, I did, So simply be my simple little Dot-ty Dim-ple dear— dear.