thought you were my lov-in' Henry Brown from Alabama. Oh, that are the same old Henry, that I love, from Alabama? Prove it.

man! I was glad; now I'm mad. Yes, I'm sad! That mistake sure will man. My face holds first place In the case of your watch, well, I'm cause my heart to break. Cause I haven't seen my Henry Brown for, sure—full of Scotch. Cause you sure enough is Henry that's been oh, so long; Is it possible that I am wrong?

gone so long. I knew all the time I wasn't wrong.

My Man.
CHORUS

Cause you talk like my man,
And you walk like my man,
Why you

sing and do most ev'ry-thing, You ev-en wear the same old Masonic ring! Why, you're sweet like my man,

'Cause you treat like my man,
But can you

LOVE like Henry Brown from Al-a-bam? he's that That's my man! 'Cause you man!
