Something Tells Me You're The Girl

Words by GEO. J. MORIARTY

Music by J. R. SHANNON

Moderato

If I were born without a heart I would not care for I'm just about to take a trip and paddle down life's you; It would not be so hard to part, I stream I need a pal to steer the ship, Then never would feel "blue" But when you leave me all will be serene I'd like to say that for a day, A longing seems to grow you're the girl I'm counting on so strong

there, that seems to care, And always lets me know.
deck the ship can't wreck, Just say you'll come a long.

CHORUS
Moderato con sentimento

Something tells me you're the girl
ie; Something whispers night and Tell me of an endless sorrow should you ever go away. Something always keeps me guessing.

Something keeps me in a whirl; Something keeps you in my dreams dear.

Something tells me you're the girl.
