YOU'RE SUCH A LONESOME MOON TO-NIGHT

Lyric by WILL M. HOUGH

Music by JEAN GILBERT

Moderato

Last
The

night when all the drowsy world Lay dreaming in the silver light;

The
same old moon that shines to-night Was shining when the world began,

She's

All Rights Reserved
Copyright MCMXII by T.B. Harms Co., N.Y. International Copyright Secured
The secrets of man: From July and Rome o.

love would reach you soon, I sang this message to the moon: And so my tender-ness divine, She'll listen to this song of mine: That with a You're such a lone-some moon to-night, Some-how you make me blue, And yet I love your dream-y light, For I am lone-some too; Oh, smile up-on the one I love, Far off where all is June, And say that just a kiss goodnight, Could change the world my lone-some moon.

You're Such.3