Moderato

In a quaint old fashioned garden,
In a quaint old fashioned town,
'Mid roses pink and white and red
'Cause tomorrow we'll be

There's a Girl in the Heart of Maryland, With a heart that belongs to me.
As I told her of my love, the oriole above,
There's a Girl in the Heart etc

Sang from the old apple tree; Then Maryland was Fair-y-land, For she promised my bride she'd be, There's a girl in the heart of Maryland, With a heart that belongs to me. There's a me.
