Not too fast

Toot, toot, toot, hear that whistle screeching,
Hon', Hon', Hon', see the crowd that's goin'
Hon', Hon', Hon',

hear the Preacher preaching,
Talking to the congregation, telling them to see the "class" they're showing,
Ev'ry-body's happy, why there's not a one who's

And dressed in lots of colors that the rainbow never had,

This town is no place for you, so, everybody's swayin'.

Run, run,

boat will soon be goin'

Honey dear, we're goin' to go and oh!

"YOU WERE ALL I HAD" New" HIT" by W. R. WILLIAMS

This is another new song by your favorite writer. Not in years has there been a song with such true sentiment that reaches all our hearts. Human nature is pretty much the same the world over and it's true that "true touch of nature makes the whole world kin". This song has that "true". You will enjoy every line of it, so see that you get a copy today, if not in the Music Department—send direct to the Publisher—you can't afford to miss this NEW ONE.
