Somewhere in the world there is a mate for whom we sigh,
Some-time we will meet one our

Some-time we will find one who heart to satisfy,

Just as the clouds are rent a-part,
By the sun that shines above,
So makes our life complete,
Just as a storm will die a-way,
So our heart will still all strife,

For

all our cares will fade a-way, When we meet the one we love, when we meet the one we love, We will rest content with life.
CHORUS

Some - where, some - where, the hap - py time will be, Some - time, some - time, for you and me, In the course of life's long jour - ney, We will kneel at Cup - id's shrine, When we meet the one we love, Some where, some - time. -time.
