There's Only One Little Girl.

Allegro Moderato.

Words & Music
By GEO. M. COHAN.

I -
There's an old time song I know - That I heard long As a boy I sure was strong - For that good old years ago, — There's only one girl, That's the fashioned song, — There's only one girl, I could — song, I love it so — I never could forget that song
— sing it all day long — Oh, how I loved that melody

There's only one

It's traveled with me right along
It was an awful hit with me

There's only one

I never knew how really

The songs we know may come and

I never knew how really

Since days of yore, since

Until a girl came go, These little ditties of the street

With a whirl And captured all my sympathy

The other night I

No other song has been so sweet

The other night while

There's Only One
sitting all alone I wrote this little version of my own. There's only Chorus.

One little girl, Beneath the sun, little girl. I've never fallen for any one girlie before, And I'll bet that I've met a million or more. There's only one little girl Look what you've

There's Only One 4
I'm playing the part Because it's all reality.
There's only one girl
One little girl for me. There's only me.
