Oriental Nights

By L. WOLFE GILBERT and ANATOL FRIEDLAND

Allegro moderato

Oh, those Oriental Nights, Silver lining in the sky,

Tempo di Valse moderato

Golden shadows drawing night; Oh, those Oriental lights, Sentimental eyes are beaming, dreaming with delight!

I bask in your wonderful smile, I ask for your love all the while,
Let's roam the wild-wood, As in our childhood, Rapture and joy to bewitch and beguile, Roses of love fill the air.
Sweet scented perfume so rare, Life's golden treasure, Love without measure.
Here 'mid the Oriental Nights.
Night-birds are crooning in the dark, Harken unto the meadow-lark; He knows

Valse come prima who goes sweetheart! Oh, those Oriental nights,

Silver lining in the sky, Golden shadows drawing nigh; Come, love, linger in my arms, In abandon gaze into my eyes, He my paradise,

Neath these wondrous skies of love. Allegro
