SUKI SAN
(Where The Cherry Blossoms Fall)

Lyric by
J. KEIRN BRENNAN

Moderately with expression

Music by
WALTER DONALDSON

In a lotus perfumed bow’r, Far away in old Japan,
Where the colored lanterns sway, In that fragrant flowered land,

Kissed by cherry blossom shower,

How I’d love once more to stray,

Nuth an oriental fan;

As we used to hand in hand;

Where the wisteria’s

Where Fuji Yama is

streaming,

peeping,

Two eyes with lovelight are beam ing;

While Yokohama is sleep ing;

REFRAIN Tenderly

Where the cherry blossoms fall, Underneath a bamboo wall,

Down beside a star-kissed sapphire sea, While a little maiden waits for me, She hums a lonesome love-sick tune, To that olden golden moon,

Su-ki San, I hear you call, Where the cherry blossoms fall.
