When My Great-Grand-Daddy and My Great-Grand-Mammy
(Used to Cuddle and Coo In a Cocoanut-Tree)

Lyric by MARSHALL WALKER
Music by WILL E. SKIDMORE

Writer of
I Never Asked to Come to This World
Somebody's Done Me Wrong
Nobody Knows Where Rosie Goes

Composer of Them Doggon' Triflin' Blues
Pray for the Lights to Go Out
It Takes a Long-Tall-Brown Skin Gal to Make a Preacher Lay His Bible Down, etc.

Copyright 1917 by Will E. Skidmore
Pub. by Skidmore Music Co., Kansas City, Mo.

NOTICE | SINGERS | PIANISTS | You Like this Song? Yes? No? Yes.

Copyright international copyright secured
When my great, great, great, great grand-dad- dy and my great, great, great, great, great grand mam-my used to

He'd serve-nude her with mon-key mul-u-dies, and then they'd chase, chase, chase thru the jungle trees. And when they'd stop, stop, stop, he would look for fleas. When my great-grand-dad-dy and my great-grand-mam-my used to

When my -