Honey - Dear

Words and Music by ANITA OWEN

Moderato

With expression

1. In the twilight after day is done,
2. When you're absent all the world seems drear,

And the shadows softly fall;
Wearily the hours creep by;

When the stars are peeping one by one, And the night-birds sweetly call,
All is sunshine, dear, when you are near, Merrily the moments fly.

Then in fancy you are by my side, Could I hold you to my heart once more,
And your voice I hear again; Such a lonely feeling
Could I know that you were true; O, I need you badly,

O'er me comes a stealing, Most of all I want you then.
For I love you madly, Come and say you love me, do.
Hon-ey - dear, Hon-ey - dear, That is all that I can hear, Hon-eydear, Hon-ey - dear, Al-ways ring-ing in my ear, Hon-eydear, Hon-ey - dear, How I wish that you were near, Hon-ey-Slowly with emphasis dear, Hon-ey - dear, O, I want you, how I want you, Hon-ey - dear.
