One evening while That bell boy got dining, Where Broadway lights are shining, A bell boy stood waiting, A. nervous Because he got no service, His yelling was telling On winkles in his eye; On tiptoes a perching For someone he was everyone about; They thought he was raging, But he was only searching, I pondered and wondered Till he began to cry, Oh, paging, While over and over He'd keep it up and shout, Oh,

He tells me he wants a double seat,
I've got a fare,

He's all dolled up like he was goin' to 'er,
I love, love,

They'll never care,
Little turtle dove,

They only take a taxi,

Love.

Love.

Love.
