ALARM CLOCK BLUES
NOVELTY SONG
By JIMMY STEIGER and NEUMAN FIER

Moderato

Music, sweet music, has always appealed to me,
Slumber, sweet slumber, it seems you've deserted me now
Always thought that good friends

Member I've loved to hear good harmony
But lately I've been bothered
We'd be But we don't get along somehow
Mr. Morpheus won't help me,

By an instrument That seems bent To prevent me from being con-
That I plainly see, I have cried And I've tried, but my pleas de-

And tho I think that it is a shame—It's myself that is all to blame,

I've got those perturbin' sleep disturbins',
Alarm clock blues. Those ever noise makins',

Joy breakin' purveyors of bad news
There's no way that I can find

To make them change their mind
When they're set—you can bet—they're right on time and
