I've Got A Gal
(Thousand Mile)
FOX TROT

By PHIL BAXTER
Arr. by F. R. Fuller

INTRO.

VOICE
O peo - ple, I got a gal,
Now let me tell you this gal
Sev'n feet tall,
sure is sweet;
You
Sleeps in the kitch - en, with her feet in the hall.
must know she's there with the jaz - zer - ine feet.

Copyright 1921 by Majestic Music Publishing Co., Dallas, Texas.
International Copyright Secured.
Printed in the U. S. A.
She's got a sister lives across the lake,
What is more she shakes a wicked knee,

She can shake and shiver like a rattlesnake;
Thousand

She has made an awful cripple of me;
Thousand

mile, thousand mile, Ho hon-ey fol-low me
mile, thousand mile, Ho hon-ey fol-low me.

I'm stone blind, can't see a wink,
I've been here since way last fall, But the
All I need is one good drink, All day long, folks 'round here don't know me 'tall So you'd better take this op - por - tu - ni - ty

I'm drv.
Hon - ky fol - low 'me. I

CHOKUS
pal, I'm blue clear thru,
I've Clot
A Qal 4

all night too, This is all I ev - er do; I'm op - por - tu - ni - ty To pack your grip and fol - low me, Thousand

CHORUS
My gal, my pal, I'm blue clear thru, My Tromb.

I've Got A Gal 4
I've Got A Gal &

My gal, my pal, I'm true to you; Thousand years, thousand years, Honey follow me.

I've Got A Gal &

My gal, my pal, I'm true to you; Thousand years, thousand years, Honey follow me.

I've Got A Gal &

My gal, my pal, I'm true to you; Thousand years, thousand years, Honey follow me.

I've Got A Gal &

My gal, my pal, I'm true to you; Thousand years, thousand years, Honey follow me.